1. Introduction:

NKOCET's students participate in a wide range of sports and cultural events at national and international competitions. The institution actively encourages students to engage in social and cultural activities, as well as games and sports events, and provides opportunities for inter-collegiate, district, and state level competitions.

Which will take place at the beginning of the second semester. During this time, students participate in various sports and cultural events, with regular practice leading up to the event. The institute provides prizes to the students, which are distributed at the cultural program. Cultural committee inauguration program is a part of cultural events, which is conducted at mid of even semester. This program includes felicitation of new student coordinators for cultural events. This program is followed by dance, drama singing by students and faculties.

Finally, the following table displays the number of awards and medals won by students for their outstanding performances in sports and cultural activities at the university, state, national, and international levels over the past five years.
